

SARC

Sexual Assault Resource Connectors

We are a group of fellow Hopkins students, trained to provide a safe space for you to talk about, and find resources for, sexual violence, assault, domestic violence, gender-based discrimination, and anything in between.

You. Matter.

keep going

F A Q

Who can come to SARC drop-ins?

Anyone! If you, a friend, a family member, or anyone you know, has experienced violence, we are here to talk. All it takes is someone seeking a safe place for peer-to-peer help.

Where and When are drop-ins?

Drop-ins are hosted in REC CENTER MEETING ROOM B (enter the rec, go through the glass door to the left, it is the room to the left). Our hours...

Monday: 6pm-9pm
Tuesday: 5pm-7pm
Thursday: 6pm-9pm
Friday: 5pm-7pm
Saturday: 5pm-7pm

To keep up with our schedule, possible cancelations, or changes in coordinators on shift, follow our Google calendar

SARU CALENDAR

Who are our connectors?

keep going

Mon 6-9pm: Brooklyn Arroyo

Basics

she/her pronouns
neuroscience and psychology double major originally from rural Washington state

Fun Facts

Loves writing poetry, watching movies with friends, listening to music, trying new food, and being a big sister

Talk to Brooklyn

She is open and welcome to all, for all kinds of topics. She is especially open with issues in queer spaces, Latin/Mexican-American culture, partner abuse, and more.

Tue 5-7pm: Rohan Venkatdos

Basics

he/him pronouns neuroscience major originally from Atlanta with Indian cultural background

Fun Facts

Enjoys sports, like tennis and cricket, running, and hiking Rohan is a State-Level Cricket Player!

Talk to Rohan

He is open to discussing anything.

Thur 6-9pm: Vedanti Bhargava

Basics

she/her pronouns
neuroscience and public health double major from Lexington, MA

Fun Facts

She has a little sister, is an avid movie watcher, getting into reading, and a big napper

Talk to Vedanti

Comfortable discussing anything, with special knowledge on gender-based violence and starting conversations in South Asian communities

Fri 5-7pm: Greta Persion

Basics

she/her pronouns

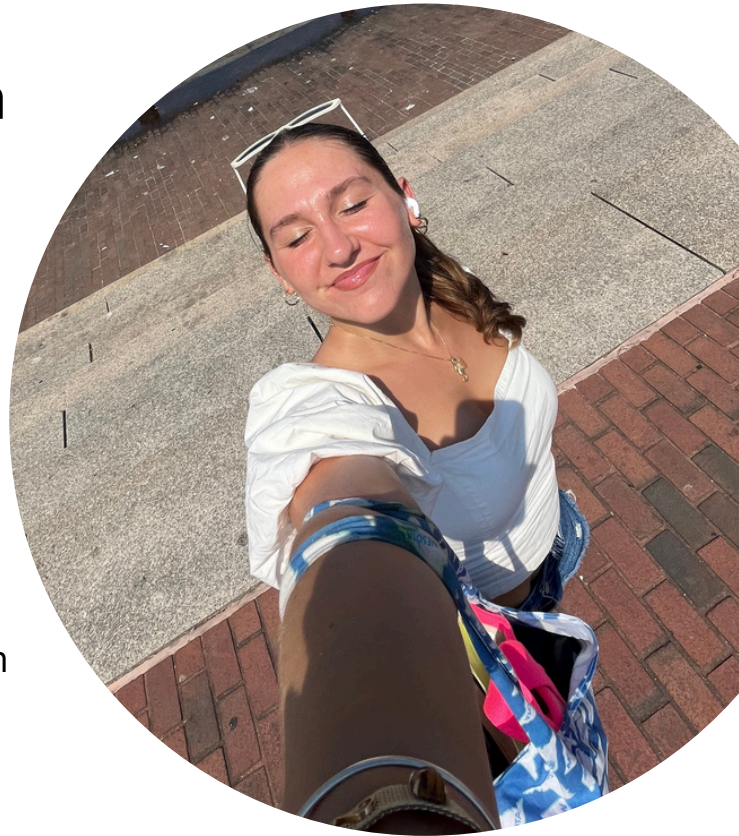

biophysics and behavioral biology double major originally from Montrose, Minnesota

Fun Facts

Enjoys fishing, scuba diving, playing tennis, being involved on campus, and being an identical twin!!

Talk to Greta

She is welcome to everyone and is especially comfortable talking about the effects of assault on college students, the reporting process, and relationship issues.

Sat 5-7pm: London Lloyd

Basics

she/her pronouns
psychology major

Fun Facts

London has been to London before! She also enjoys singing and is a member of the acapella group Sirens!

Talk to London

She is open to all sorts of topics but is especially comfortable in areas like intimate partner violence and racial discrimination.

Remember,

there is always a place for you.

You. Matter.

SARC is here for all.